TOWN CRIER - WILMINGTON, MASS.

APRIL 23, 1964

PRICE 10 CENTS

ANOTHER $ MILLION SCHOOL

There will be ten articles, in the warrant for the coming Special Town Meeting, the Board of Selectmen decided, last Monday night—that is if the Board of Registrars qualifies the signatures of citizens in the cases of two articles.

Two zoning articles have yet to be 'certified' by the Registrars, that of the North Wilmington Industrial area, and the proposal to rezone along Main Street, for a skating rink.

From the standpoint of the tax payer, the most expensive article will be that which will propose a new Intermediate School, off Carter Lane, and overlooking the present Boutwell School. It is expected to cost over a million dollars.

Increases in pay for town employees, other than police, fire department and schools, were the subject of a lengthy debate, Monday, with Selectman John Brooks finally proposing that the sum to be named be left 'open', a move which carried, but not before Selectman Lloyd Bender said in effect that the proposal was shocking, and that it left the town 'wide open'.

The first article on the warrant, as the Selectmen decided to have it, was one to raise and appropriate money for the acquiring of a site for a well field, in North Wilmington.

The second article will propose to transfer 11.4 acres of land to the Water Department, for this same purpose, and the third article will ask that the old Town Dump, on Salem Street, 2 acres in extent, be also transferred for the same purpose.

Article 4, the real money article, will ask for the purchase, or taking by eminent domain, of land off Carter Lane for the new school and for further money for preparing preliminary plans for the construction of the new school.

The article is on request of the Permanent Building Committee.

Article 5 is the North Wilmington Development article, in which land near Middlesex Avenue and the B & M RR be changed to industrial. The land, as presently delineated, corresponds to the property of the old C S Harriman tannery.

Article six will ask for the rezoning of the Main Street land belonging to the Yentile family, for a skating rink.

Article 7 asks for the construction of sidewalks leading to the new Woburn Street school, on High Street, Woburn Street, Salem St. Park Street, and as far down as West Street.

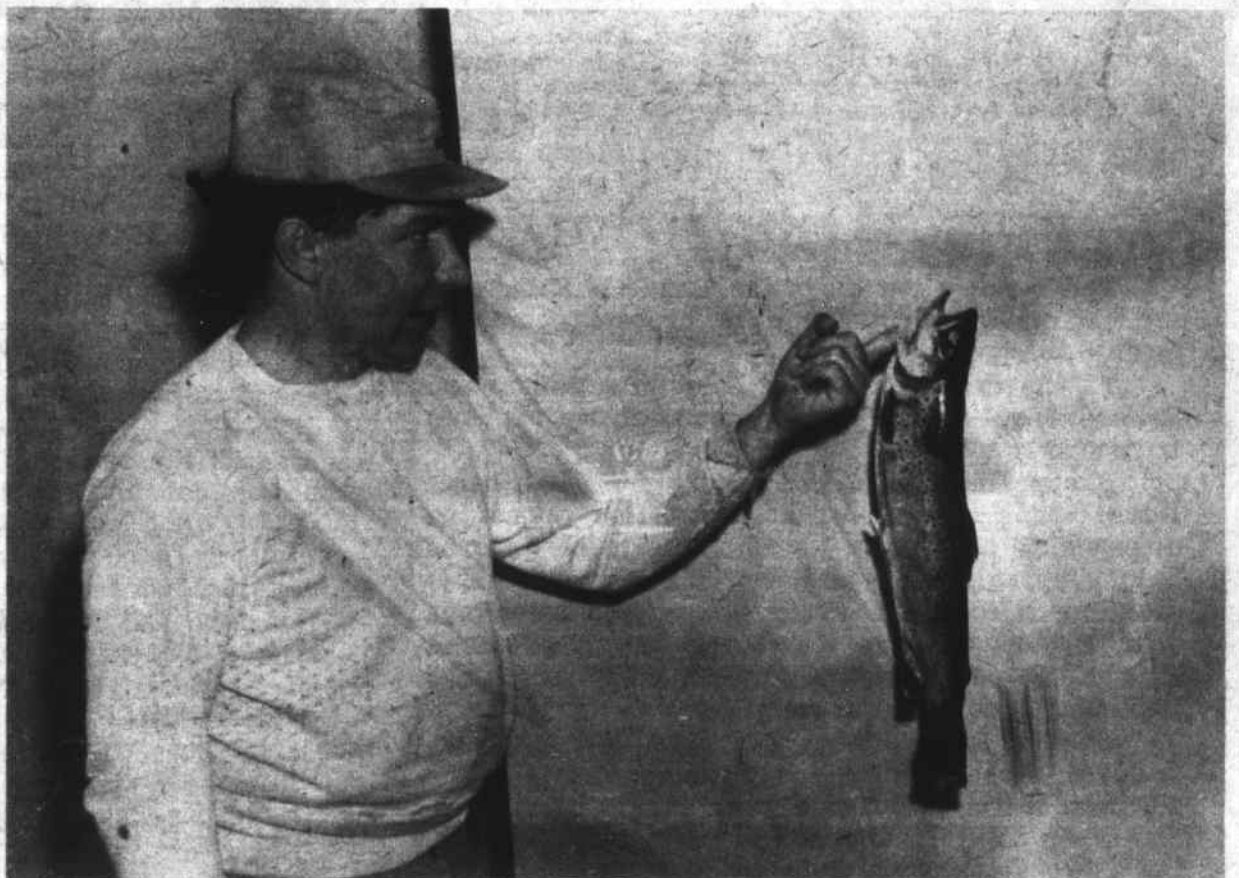

The Selectmen noted that no engineering studies had yet been done in this direction, and also debated, with no decision, the question as to whether or not betterments should be applied to such a proposal.

Article 8, proposed by the Planning Board, asks that Chapter 40A Section 8 of the General Laws be accepted by the town. This law would prevent rezoning articles from appearing in the warrant for a town meeting until two years had elapsed, in the event that the article had already been defeated in a town meeting.

Article 9 asks for the sum of $1100 for expenses of the recently re-constituted Building By Laws Committee.

Article 10 is the proposal to increase the pay of town employees. The selectmen debated a 3% increase, a six percent increase, and other such thoughts, before finally deciding to leave the sum 'open'.

A 12% increase, tentatively proposed by the town Manager, would cost the town $63,000 this year.

22 INCHES LONG! Albert Ethier of Woburn Street probably caught the biggest trout, of any Wilmington fisherman, on opening day, last Saturday, of the fishing season. It weighed in at almost 3 pounds. Where was he fishing? That's a secret, says Al!

BOARD OF APPEAL DECISIONS

Three decisions, handed down by the Board of Appeals in the past week, have resulted in one approval, and two denials, by that board.

The board, on the 15th of April approved the revision of property lines for two lots of land owned by Edith Cutter, on Church St.

One lot had a 50 foot frontage and the other a 100 foot frontage. The board approved making each lot with about a 75 foot frontage. The case was heard on March 31.

In the second case, John E. Connell was denied the right to create an additional lot of land at 21 Parker Street.

Mr. Connell, in a case heard on March 31 sought to divide a lot in his 22,500 foot zones so as to create two lots, each with 100 foot frontage.

The board decided that there was no hardship shown.

The third case involved land on High Street, part of which had been taken by the state, at the time that Route 93 was constructed.

Fred Pearson sought to divide a lot of land of 27,909 square feet into two lots, one having a frontage of 125 feet, and the other a frontage of 139 feet.

Again the board held that there had been no hardship shown.

JOE CASEY IN OKLAHOMA

Private Joseph W. Casey Jr. of 2 Main Street, former star in the Wilmington Chargers, has completed his advanced training as a cannoner, at the Army Artillery and Missile Center, at Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

Casey, whose mother is Mrs. Helen R. Casey, completed his training on March 27th. He was trained to serve as a crewman in field artillery or howitzer crews.

He is a graduate of Wilmington High School, where he played center on the football squad. Before entering the Army he was employed at the United Electrical Control Company, in Watertown.

PERSISTANCE PROVED THE POINT

The strange antics of the Board of Selectmen for the past five weeks have probably confused more than one person.

To the casual observer, Selectmen Bender and Brooks have been disputing an intricate problem in record keeping.

Behind the verbal exchanges is a more basic issue. The real question was whether or not the dictates of the Town Meeting was to be honored by the Board of Selectmen. A relatively simple problem, it took five weeks to resolve. Selectman John Brooks insisted that there was no problem. He took the persistent questions of Selectman Lloyd Bender as a personal affront.

Bender had insisted that there were discrepancies in the records, as to appointments in the Permanent Building Committee.

When this committee was established in 1958, the Town Meeting deliberately voted that the terms of not more than two members should expire at any one time. This provides continuity in the discharging of the involved duties of the committee.

For reasons perhaps best known to one selectman three members of the PBC had been appointed with terms expiring in 1965. This, of course, violated the Town Meeting Vote. Effectively, it frustrated the safeguards imposed by the Town Meeting.

When Bender first raised the question, Brooks, in great irritation, moved that it be referred to the Town Counsel. On the basis of the vaguely worded inquiry, the Town Counsel indicated that the appointments were proper, and in order.

Bender persisted. He demanded a better phrased question to the Town Counsel. The gist of his question was: How could a member of the Permanent Building Committee serve seven years on two three-year appointments?

This time the Town Counsel gave a formal opinion that Bender's point was well taken. The Town Counsel recommended corrective action by the Selectmen.

Monday night the Selectmen corrected their error.

TWO EXAMPLES WORTH NOTICING

A week ago, in this column, the Town Crier again took up its old proposal that the South Industrial Zone of Wilmington be improved, so as to make it attractive to incoming industry. This was because the Town Manager had been searching for 10 acres of land, with a railroad facility.

The TM, it was noted, was also concerned with the prices of land - prices which he deemed to be too high.

It might be well, at this time, to look at the work done by two cities in this Commonwealth - Peabody and Lowell.

In both cases the cities had municipally owned land, and in both cases the land has been improved to make it more attractive to industry.

And, in both cases, the improvement seems to be paying off, for the taxpayers of the city.

In Peabody, the old city infirmary, with about 80 acres of land, was improved. Streets, sewerage, storm drainage, power, etc etc were put in. The Town Crier is not certain as to how this was financed.

Now the first industry has located there, with foundations in, and it is just about ready to start construction of the steel framework.

It is further understood that every bit of the land has been sold, or optioned, and that by next September the City of Peabody expects to announce this. The price of the land - informally, it is understood to be pegged at $3000 an acre.

In Lowell, an Industrial Park was developed. It was, if the reader please, an example for a long time of a development that 'didn't pay off'.

But things have started there, now, and it is confidently expected that all the land will be sold to industry before the summer is out.

Again, and again informally, it is understood that the city of Lowell pegged the price of the land, so that it was attractive to industry.

Meanwhile - here in Wilmington, the South Industrial Zone (the great interior portion of it) sits, as it has for many years - of no use to industry or to the taxpayers of Wilmington.

THE DEMOCRATIC TOWN COMMITTEE

Wilmington's Democrats are being given an unique opportunity to pick and choose, in the election next Tuesday.

They have not one, but two slates, from which to pick. Should the voters act intelligently a fine slate of Democratic officials can be chosen, to serve the party, and the town, for the next four years.

Four years ago, it will be remembered, there were about a dozen 'sticker' candidates elected by the Democrats of Wilmington. There were many Democrats at that time who were dissatisfied with the past actions of some members of the Committee. These members had used their influence and funds of the Democratic party not only to support candidates in non-partisan elections, but, even worse, had engaged the Democratic party in the battle to have the Town Manager plan of Wilmington changed or done away with.

The people who were elected by the sticker campaign have, in large part, kept the Democratic Town Committee more properly within its functions.

In the election of next Tuesday those same sticker candidates are now presenting a slate of their own. They are attempting to oust certain persons who have not always acted in the best interests of the Democratic party, or of the town.

It will be interesting to see if the Democrats of Wilmington will support this reform slate, headed by James P Donahue.

GOLDEN AGE CLUB NEWS

The Wilmington Golden Age Club meeting on April 16, in the Methodist Church, welcomed a new member, and one guest. President Alida Brabant was in charge.

A get well card was sent to Julia Surrano, and Mr Phinney, both of whom are in the hospital. The Sewing Circle, it was announced, will meet Monday.

Tickets are available from any member for the Minstrel Show to be held in Wilmington High School on May 22nd. The show is to be put on by the Lowell Golden Age Club, which did such a wonderful job in Wilmington a year ago.

The next meeting, on May 7th, will have a birthday party for all members having a birthday in March, April, or May. Mrs Hildred Irwin and Mrs Helen Allen will be in charge.

RAY McCLURE REAPPOINTED TO PBC

Raymond McClure, oldest member of the Permanent Building Committee, was reappointed to membership in the Committee by night. It took the Selectmen forty five minutes to settle their minutes of their previous discussion of the PBC, and then elect Mr McClure.

The first half hour was spent in an argument over the minutes of the previous meeting.

It started with Selectman John Brooks insisting that the minutes of the meeting were wrong. The original version of the minutes reported Mr Bender as saying that not more than two terms of PBC members should expire, in any year.

Brooks argued that it was just a typographical error, in that three terms were shown as expiring in 1965.

Bender said that, according to the records, no appointments were made in 1961, and certainly three terms would have to expire in 1965 unless corrective action was taken at this time. He pointed out that PBC member McClure had succeeded in serving for seven years on two three-year appointments.

Brooks contended that Mr Benders allegation, by the records, made it appear that the Board of Selectmen had done something improper.

Bender's rejoinder was that it was not a question of the Selectmen not doing something that was improper, but rather of doing something that was proper.

In previous meetings Brooks had said that Mr McClure had had no effective say in the PBC meetings because he was effectively outvoted, and Mr. Bender, at this point in the Monday meeting took the time to cite the record of the attendance by McClure of a number of meetings. Bender, using Town Clerk records, showed that Mr McClure had been present and voting in eleven out of twenty meetings, during which he was one of three members present, and this while serving without an appointment. He raised the question as to the legality of the acts of the committee, during these meetings.

Brooks said, in effect, that 'I merely want to correct the minutes' to which Bender replied that he should make the motion and he, Bender, would second it.

The two men got into another hassle about the expiration dates of PBC members, and Bender pointed out that Mr Brooks had been the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen in 1961, when the appointment should have been made for Mr McClure.

Brooks, to this, read the minutes of the 1962 meeting in which Mr McClure was reappointed and said 'for three years - no expiration date!'

Mr LaRivee, Chairman, anxious to get the argument stopped said that the appointment could be conceived to be re-troactive, and Brooks jumped at this.

Referring to the re-organization of the Board of Selectmen, which had been delayed, Brooks then said 'May I point out that, according to the theory of Mr Bender, all the committee acts of this board were illegal?'

Bender: 'Don't subscribe any theories to me John - I'll express them myself!'

By 8:25 pm Mr LaRivee was getting tired of the arguments, and in desperation asked if there were any other corrections, and by 8:30 pm the Selectmen finally got around to the nominations of members of the PBC.

It was agreed that the terms of Mr McClure and Mr Harrison were expiring, Mr. Harrison having been appointed to serve out the unexpired term of former member Vincent McLain.

Brooks nominated McClure and Bender nominated Thomas J Murphy of Salem Street.

Former PBC member Joseph F Courtney had his name put in nomination by Charles Black.

Brooks made a speech in favor of Mr McClure - an original member of the PBC - served faithfully - entitled to serious consideration to indicate that his work had not been overlooked.

Bender gave a resume of the abilities of Mr Murphy - a BC grad who had served as an officer in the artillery, and was now a production manager for Transiron. Nothing was said about the abilities of Mr Courtney.

The vote was five to one, in favor of McClure.

The Selectmen then proceeded to nominate the second member. Bender nominated Mr Murphy and Brooks Mr Harrison. Mr Harrison, he said, had brought a very peculiar knowledge of plumbing to the committee.

The vote this time was tied. For Murphy Chairman LaRivee, Mrs Drew and Bender voted. For Harrison the vote was Brooks, Black and Town Manager Bouchard.

Four votes were taken, all with the same results, after which TM Bouchard observed 'this is where I came in'. (A year ago he broke a tie vote of the Selectmen, in his first vote, a vote which removed Niles and Hanke from the PBC. The selectmen decided to table the matter, until their next meeting.

MERRIMAC VALLEY
LITURGICAL DAY APRIL 26

A series of Study Days, under the theme of 'A New Pentecost' is being sponsored by the Boston Sacramental Apostolate, according to the priests of St Thomas Church. CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
(A United Church of Christ)
Wilmington, Massachusetts

April 14 1964

Dear Sir;

I would like to congratulate the Wilmington Methodist Church, and rejoice with them, for the public declaration they recently made in regard to racial equality. When I was a Methodist minister (for ten years in Southern California) the segregation of the 'Central Jurisdiction of The Methodist Church' always pained me deeply, for it was such a crass violation of the Gospel by the Church. Some individual Methodists are taking courageous action in trying to eliminate racial injustice. We shall all pray with them that The Methodist Church will eliminate the discrimination in their Central Jurisdiction at the next General Conference coming up.

I am glad for the historic action taken by our General Synod in July 1963 meeting in Denver, wherein the United Church of Christ became the first major Protestant denomination to withhold any of its mission monies from any UCC supported institutions which practiced racial discrimination of any sort.

The same General Synod brought into being a new Instrumentality of the denomination, the Council for Racial Justice Now, which action was more than 'legislative' or 'resolution making' but put redemptive measures into effect immediately. This action was backed by an offering in the General Synod session itself wherein 600 delegates gave better than several thousand ($7,000.00) toward immediate support of assistance to negroes discriminated against, and to whites who were abused for identifying their efforts in the cause of racial justice.

The entire denomination has again given, since the General Synod meeting, one 'Racial Justice Now' offering in each local church (including Wilmington), and the second such offering comes up soon; there will be two such offerings taken in every local church each year.

One of our most prominent UCC young leaders, Dr. Robert Spike, left his position on our Board of Homeland Ministries to head up the new interracial department of The National Council of Churches.

I am particularly pleased that our local Wilmington congregation anticipated such denominational action nearly three years before it happened nationally. For our congregation, in a meeting called for the purpose on a Sunday after the Service, voted a racial equality resolution covering housing, open membership in the Church, etc.

The interracial work of Andover-Newton Theological School, UCC and Baptist, in Newton Center, Mass., is becoming nationally known. It was they who started Bluehill Protestant Center in Roxbury, and inspired much of the action taken by whites and negroes from this area in various southern towns, identifying themselves - at risk of life - with civil rights and racial justice.

My own hope is that none of our Christian peoples will take any pride in such obviously belated actions. For they are all a matter of what our Gospel has declared from the beginning! There would be something ludicrous - not to say odious - in Christians thinking that they had done something 'important' when actually their action exposes only a tardiness. The spirit should be one of penitence, and only that.

Also I fear that we often, even if unintentionally, express our prejudice by inverting it when we make negro minority groups 'projects' - even if projects of our great white beneficence.

Respectfully yours,
Robert E Sanders
Pastor, UCC, Wilmington

Dear Sir:

I wish to thank you personally for the copies of the Town Crier which were sent to me. The students were thrilled upon receiving them.

I think both Wilmington and Groveton students were pleased at the exchange, and gained much goodness from it.

The Band parents are behind my program 100% and do look forward to more exchange Concerts in the coming years. I hope this experience has been rewarding for Wilmington and hope the parents of the band students will look forward to more exchange concerts there.

Once again, thank you for all you did for me and my students.

Sincerely yours,
Louis E Micucci

Dear Mr Neilson:

Thank you for your thoughts commending the passage of the Library Services and Construction Act.

In regards to the needs of the Wilmington library, you may be assured that I will be prepared to be of all possible assistance when the town has made its bid for assistance under this nw law.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,
Edward M Kennedy

25TH ANNIVERSARY FOR OLIVE SHELTON

Mrs Olive Sheldon, clerk to the Board of Selectmen, was elected to her position again, Monday night.

The lady is now beginning her 25th year in this position. She also serves as an Assessor, for the Town of Wilmington.

FRIENDLY ICE CREAM TO OPEN AT DE MOULAS

The Friendly Ice Cream Corporation of Wilbraham, Massachusetts will open an ice cream and sandwich shop in the Wilmington Plaza on Route 38, according to an announcement by Robert J. Gaudrault, Executive Vice President of the firm.

Friendly, currently operating 88 shops in Massachusetts and Connecticut, will also open in the Haverhill Plaza, Haverhill on May 15. The Wilmington Shop is 2500 square feet in size, Georgian Colonial in design, and features both booth and counter service, seating 52 people.

The Wilmington Shop, tentatively opening in early August, will be the 12th addition to the Friendly chain in 1964. 1963 was the 18th consecutive year that the firm had realized a sales increase of at least 20% over the previous 12 months. Among other stores located in the Wilmington Plaza are W. T. Grant's and DeMolas Supermarket.

AT CANDIDATE'S NIGHT LAST SATURDAY: Mrs Wavie Drew, Chairman of the Wilmington Republican Town Committee, with the three GOP Gubernatorial Candidates, last Saturday evening, in a Candidates Night in the Legion Hall, in Woburn. Over 300 were present to hear the speakers, including all but three of the Wilmington Republican Committee.

POLLS OPEN NOON TUESDAY PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES

Wilmington Democrats and Republicans, who go to the polls next Tuesday, and vote in the Presidential Primaries, will be facing different problems.

The Democrats of Wilmington will have to make a choice between two different Town Committees, and a similar choice in other committees, but not in the case of the State Committee.

The Republicans, on the other hand, will have no problem with a Town Committee, but will be faced with a problem in the Delegates-At-Large, where they will have to make their choice between two slates.

Democratic Ballot

The Democratic slate for Delegates to the national convention, it will appear on the ballot, has 56 names, starting with John F Albano of Longmeadow, and ending with Thomas J White of Newton.

There is no contest, but the voter must mark his cross after the individual names, and cannot vote for the Delegates with a single vote. It thus become, in effect, a state popularity contest.

Similarly the Democrats have not contest in the Delegate Alternates.

Two votes are to be cast for the District Delegates, with two names being submitted, as is also the case in the Alternates.

Not until he arrives at the names of the State Committee from the 7th District does the Democratic voter arrive at a point where he

Edward P Gilgun, of Woburn, the present delegate, is facing three other candidates, Russell S Braes of Woburn, a 'reform' candidate, Timothy J Mahoney of Woburn, and James P Donahue of Wilmington, also a 'reform' candidate.

A similar contest exists in the State Committee Woman from the 7th district.

One woman, out of four, is to be elected.

Shirley D Bayle, of Lexington, is the 'reform' candidate. Claire Buckley Dwyer, of Woburn, a friend of State Senator Long, is another candidate, Helen O'Brien of Stoneham, and Anna M Visconti, of Wilmington, well known in this area, will probably get many Wilmington votes.

The two slates for the Town Democratic Committee gives the voter who wants to pick and choose a large number of names.

The Number One position is taken by the 'regular' town committee, headed by James L McLaughlin, of Shawsheen Avenue.

The Number Two position, the 'reform' committee, is headed by James P Donahue, of Cypress St.

Actually, both committees have persons who were a part of the regular committee, in previous years. Some of those in the 'regular' group were in the Anti-Town Manager party of several years past, while most of those in the reform group were in the Pro-Town Manager party.

Republican Ballots

The choice, in the Republican ballots to be marked by Wilmington Republicans, begins immediately.

There are two slates for the 10 Delegates to the National Convention.

Each of the two slates has an Alternate slate, as well.

Slate Number One is headed by Senator Leverett Saltonstall, and is the so-called 'moderate' group. It is pledged, informally, to vote for Henry Cabot Lodge, 'as the Presidential Nominee, in the National Convention.

The alternate slate, for the Number One group, headed by Senator Philip A Graham of Hamilton, is similarly pledged.

The Number Two slate of ten delegates to the National Convention is headed by Michael Robbins of Brookline, with the second name, that of Jack Molesworth being one that would probably be better recognized by Wilmington voters.

It is a slate that is in favor of Goldwater, in the Presidential Nominations.

The alternate slate, for this group, is headed by Gerrald A Giblein, of Wellesley, and is similarly pledged.

The District Delegates to the National Convention are similarly divided into two slates.

Group 1, with two delegates, is headed by Vincent Hockmeyer of Andover, and is the Goldwater slate. Its alternate slate is headed by Paul H Provandie 2nd of Melrose.

The Group 2 Delegates, who favor Lodge, are headed by Harrison Chadwick of Winchester, with the alternate group being headed by Helene S Carstensen of Melrose.

There is no contest in the State Committee Man, but there are two candidates for State Committee Woman from the district, both ladies coming from Lexington.

Barbara Gilson and Marlon E Hunt are the two candidates. Mrs Hunt has received local endorsement.

When the Republicans get to the point of choosing the Town Republican Committee they have no problem at all.

There are thirty five names, but no contests, in the Wilmington Republican slate. All the voter has to do is to put an X in the circle at the head of the slate, and the entire slate has been voted.

Presidential Preference

In each of the ballots, the last is ostensibly being held.

After the voter has finished with the Town Committee a place is provided for the Presidential Preference.

He is supposed to write in the name of the person who he prefers, for Presidential Candidate of the party.

A large delegation is expected of dignitaries from the town, county and state, as well as officials of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and other D A V Chapters in the state.

REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE NEWS

Mrs Wavie Drew, Chairman of the Wilmington Republican Town Committee has stated, relative to the Presidential Primary on next Tuesday, that Republicans and Independents interested in indicating their choice for a GOP nominee by writing the name of their choice in the appropriate place, on the ballot for the person he chooses.

In past presidential primaries only 10 to 20% of the eligible Republicans have bothered to vote, although the election advises the Convention delegates on preferred Presidential candidates, and also sets the caliber and course of the Republican Party in Massachusetts.

The ballot calls for the election of the Town Republican Committee, the members of the State Committee (one man and one woman from each of 40 districts) two convention delegates and two alternates from each of 12 districts, 10 statewide delegates-at-large, and 10 alternates, as well as the preference for the Presidential Nominee.

There are two slates on the ballot for delegates-at-large. A voter can pick some from each, or write in other names, but if he votes for more than ten he invalidates his ballot. There are contests for district delegates in all but one of the 12 districts.

Who may vote? Registered voters who are enrolled Republicans or who are not enrolled in any other party. (I.e. Independents) may ask for a GOP ballot, enrolled Democrats must take a Democratic ballot. An unenrolled (Independent) voter who asks for either ballot is automatically enrolled in that party at that point. The day after the election any enrolled voter may go to the Town Clerk and may change the designation after his name, and become a so-called Independent again. In the United States we have a two party system, and there is no Independent Party.

The April 28th Primary election is the most important election in the next four years. In this election the party leaders are chosen on four levels, men and women who will be the policy makers of each party. It follows that independent voters are not independent at all, but instead are dependent on the Democrats and Republicans who are registered as such, and who vote next Tuesday.

This is the choice of the voter. He should exercise his right and privilege, and vote, on April 28. The polls are at the High School, and are open from 12 noon to 8 pm

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR HARRY A NICHOLSON

POOR OPENING FOR FISHING SEASON

JENKS BRIDGE ON OPENING MORNING: Most of the trout caught in Wilmington on the first day of the fishing season was at Jenks' Bridge, on Woburn Street, where the Ipswich River begins. This scene was taken shortly after daybreak.

Only one place in Wilmington was conducive to fishing, last Saturday, the opening day of the 1964 season, and that was at Jenks' Bridge, on Woburn Street.

Probably the first fisherman to get enough for his breakfast was Richard Goodearl of Federal St. who was home with five nice trout before the sun had risen, ready to cook his breakfast.

The Jenks Bridge area, which was fairly heavily stocked, earlier in the week, was almost fished out, by small boys who were not observing the law, but there were still a few to catch, on opening day.

The stocking at Lubbers Brook at Middlesex Avenue, was not very heavy, and fishing has been poor there. The Town Crier has not had any reports on results at Concord Street.

The best fishing in the area is to be found at Bridge Street, in South Tewksbury, on the Shaw-sheen River. Fishing is good, both upstream and downstream from Bridge Street.

NEW MANAGER OF KRISTAL PHARMACY: John (Jack) Flynn, of Woburn, who has been appointed the Manager of the original Kristal Pharmacy, in the Gardner Building, on Main Street.
